

VENEZUELA.

Crespo's Forces Routed and Closely Pressed.

A Battle With Hundreds of Dead and Dying Left on the Field.

Both Sides Fight With the Greatest Fury—Gen. Caleras Found Among the Slain—A Trap for the Revolutionists Miscarries.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The Venezuelan consular here received news that Gen. Crespo, chief of the revolutionists, was in retreat before the government soldiers. The last bulletin showed him to be at San Juan de Los Moros, and the government soldiers were pressing him closely. Many of his followers were deserting him, and his army was made up of cowboys principally.

As reported in telegraphic dispatches a severe engagement took place at Ciudad Bolivar, details of which are now at hand.

The battle opened outside of the town when Gen. Caleras caused a charge to be made on the enemy. The revolutionists stood their ground firmly, and suffered considerable loss. They next met the government troops with machetes and fought with great fury.

The soldiers of Caleras were repulsed on this charge, and fell back carrying their wounded. After a short rest the troops were reformed and again attacked the rebels. The fighting became general. Caleras rode at the end of his men and urged them on. He was cut off from the main body of his little army, and with half a dozen of his men found himself surrounded by a large number of the enemy, all eager to kill him. He fought for his life as stubbornly as he could, but he was finally knocked off his horse and killed. The government forces rallied and forced the rebels to retreat.

The consul's advice from the government at Caracas contain the news of an important and bloody fight that took place August 16 near Villa de Cura, in which 1,500 men are said to have been killed or wounded. Gen. L. Mendoza was at Villa de Cura with a large force. Gen. Vallenilla had concentrated 2,000 some distance from him. Gen. Mendoza is considered the bravest and ablest of Venezuelan generals. He planned to lead the revolutionists under Vallenilla into an ambush and destroy them. For this purpose he sent a force of 800 men from his army under command of Gen. Zolaaga to march where the rebels were. His instructions to Zolaaga were to approach the enemy and apparently offer them battle. When they would commence to fight the government troops were not to fire in return, but were to slowly retreat and draw the enemy on until the main army appeared, when a general onslaught would be made and the revolutionary army destroyed. Zolaaga drew near to the force of revolutionists and was attacked. Their fire told with great effect and the government general fell dead. Without a leader his troops forgot their instructions, and, enraged at the death of their commander, they returned the fire of the enemy, and a hot battle began that raged with great fury. The force of 100 men found themselves opposed to 2,000, but fought on. The revolutionists had several field pieces and these raked the men. The battle continued for several hours with varying success. The modern rifles and better training of the government proved great loss on the other side. The revolutionists threw their forces on either side and almost surrounded the men. The latter saw that the battle was going against them and tried to cut their way out. Both sides seemed to have become crazed and fought furiously. The dead lay on all sides and the wounded were trampled on as the scene of conflict changed from place to place. Later in the afternoon the remnant of the government force succeeded in getting through the lines of the enemy. They beat a hasty retreat to a little distance, when they got a little needed rest. The revolutionists had lost 1,000 men.

A Magistrate Sympathizes With Strikers. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 27.—C. T. Allen, assistant labor commissioner, returned to Coal Creek, was arrested and gave bond in $5,000 for his appearance. Justice Wilson, of the magistrates selected to try the rioters, withdrew from the case, saying he was in sympathy with the miners. This caused a postponement of the trial when Bud Lindsay's trial was begun before Justice Kinkaid. Forty convicts will be sent to Oliver Springs next week to rebuild the stockades.

Washington Prohibitionists. TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 27.—The prohibition state convention Friday nominated Judge Roger F. Greene, of Seattle, for governor. A. E. Dickinson, of Walla Walla, and E. P. Newberry, of Island county, were nominated for congress. Four presidential electors and a complete state ticket was put in the field.

Drove Nails in His Ears. BOUNDARY, Ind., Aug. 27.—Ella Shingledor tried to poison her husband with strychnine. When she couldn't do that she drove eight-penny nails in his ear while he was asleep. She was tried and bound over to court. She could not get bail and went to jail.

Murderer Morton Hanged. CAMDEN, N. J., Aug. 27.—James R. Morton, the murderer of Mrs. Lydia Ann Wyatt, colored, 73 years old, was hanged here Friday morning. The crime for which Morton paid the penalty was one of the most brutal in the country.

Railway Traffic Stopped. BERLIN, Aug. 27.—Orders have been issued to stop the railway traffic with Russia at every point along the frontier of East Prussia with the exception of Eydkuhnen and Prostken.

McCORMACK of Bowling Green, President of the International Conference of State Boards of Health, was called to a meeting of the Executive Committee of the conference for next Friday in Indianapolis, the object being to take measures to prevent the introduction of cholera into this country.

GREAT KENTUCKY REVIVAL.

Held On the Spot Where the Christian Church Was Organized.

A special from Paris, under date of the 25th, says over five thousand people assembled at Old Cane Ridge Church that day to hear Elder Sylvester M. Martin, the St. Louis evangelist, preach, and to attend a basket dinner as fine as was ever set in the Bluegrass region. He preached in the same old church and on the sacred spot where the great meeting known in history as the great Kentucky revival took place in 1801, when thirty thousand people were in attendance. To-day's attendance was the largest since that meeting, and preaching from this time-honored spot seemed to inspire the evangelist in his speaking. He stood in the window, and the crowd listened to him from the house and the yard. Just as he had finished his address and was exhorting the people to come to Christ, Dr. Noah Moore, who is an invalid and has suffered in a buggy, was stricken with paralysis. It was announced that he was dead, and the people became excited and rushed away, the speaker then dismissing them with the benediction. The Doctor is still alive, but cannot recover. It was just ninety-one years ago to-day since Elder Barton W. Stone began his great revival here, which resulted in the organization of what is known as the Christian Church, and his remains rest beneath the old churchyard.

THE FAIR BOOMING.

Another Large Crowd on the Grounds Yesterday—Excellent Racing.

SUCCESSFUL EXHIBITORS IN THE ARENA.

The Last Day Will be a Grand One—The 2:15 Trot To-day.

There was another large crowd at the Fair Grounds yesterday. Not so many as on Thursday but enough to make things look like old fashioned fair times. The speed rings were productive of some excellent sport and the show of stock in the arena was admirable, consisting of harness geldings, teams and herd rings. The boy's riding contest was won by Charles Fleming, son of T. M. Fleming of Flemingsburg. Premiums were awarded in the ring as follows: Harness gelding, four years old and over, J. W. Poindexter, Cynthiana. Harness gelding, three years old, B. F. Metcalfe, Brooksville. Harness gelding, two years old, J. W. Fletcher, Flemingsburg. Pair of harness geldings, J. W. Poindexter, Cynthiana. Pair of harness geldings, Poindexter & Arthur. Coach team, mares or geldings, J. W. Poindexter, Cynthiana. Pair of roadsters, any sex, Poindexter & Arthur. Stallion and three colts, J. W. Fitch, Flemingsburg. Mare and two colts, W. T. Sugg, Carlisle. Mare and suckling colt, W. A. Taliaferro, Bracken county. Harness and roadster mare colt sucking, S. T. Sugg, Carlisle. Harness and roadster stallion colt sucking, Mason Thompson, Millersburg. Saddle stallion colt sucking, Wesley Viery, Maysville. Saddle mare colt sucking, Joseph Walton, Germantown. Suckling colt any sex, Mason Thompson, Millersburg. There were three races, the 2:22 trot, the merchant stake for foals of 1888 and the three-year old pacers. The 2:22 trot was brought up first with five starters, Black Storm, by Simmons, owned by F. G. Craig, Berry; Bonhomie, by Red Wilkes, Crit Davis, Harrodsburg; Jake, by Messenger Chief, A. B. Hutchings, Danville; Collinswood, by Mambrino Stella, W. A. Russell, Danville, and Stella Belmont, by Belmont, W. G. Swearingen, Paris. Bonhomie won the race, but she did not have a walkover by any means, being compelled to show some good speed. Black Storm started out as a very formidable opponent but seemed to weaken. Summary: Bonhomie..... 2 1 1 Black Storm..... 1 2 5 Collinswood..... 3 4 3 Jake..... 4 3 4 Stella Belmont..... 4 5 3 Time 2:17 1/2, 2:18 1/2, 2:17 1/2.

The four-year old trot was won by Dan Cubit, sired by Barney Wilkes of the Limestone Stock Farm. He is in truth "the noble son of a worthy sire." Although closely pushed by J. W. Fitzgerald's mare Black Ide, he won three straight heats. There were five starters: Dan Cubit, Barney Wilkes, S. P. Salter, Lexington; Oriana, Onward, E. W. Ayres, Ducker's Station; Cigarette, Colonel Hambrick, Ferguson & Bond, Lexington; Black Ide, Cyclone, J. W. Fitzgerald, Maysville, and Naboth, Walsingham, M. S. Baughman, Stanford. Cigarette met with an accident in the second heat, falling down and breaking the harness but not injuring himself. Much to the regret of the spectators, he was not in the race. Summary: Dan Cubit..... 1 1 1 Black Ide..... 2 3 2 Oriana..... 2 3 2 Naboth..... 3 4 4 Cigarette..... 3 dis Time 2:22, 2:24, 2:22.

Three horses started in the three-year old pace which was won by Rosemary easily. They were Martha H., Gambetta Wilkes, L. W. Hudson & Son, Danville; Lady Princeton, Princeton, Buford & Tarlton, Lexington, and Rosemary, Bermuda, B. J. Treacy, Lexington. Summary: Rosemary..... 1 1 1 Martha H..... 2 3 2 Lady Princeton..... 3 4 4 Time 2:22, 2:24, 2:22.

The great Norval, the property of R. P. Pepper & Son, Frankfort, trotted to beat his record of 2:17 1/2. He made the mile in 2:14. He was owned by Dr. Vaughn of Paris trotted to beat 2:25 and came around in 2:23.

J. W. Fitzgerald's mare, Metal, trotted under 2:45 and made a record of 2:34. Saxton's Orchestra of Lexington rendered delightful music at the Floral Hall during the afternoon.

To-day's program is a most attractive one. The great 2:18 trot postponed from Thursday will come off to a certainty. In it will start Dr. Sparks, Katherine S. and Gillette. Also the Cincinnati Tobacco Warehouse stake.

This is the effect of Ripley whisky: Two men named McBeth and Sullivan, residing on a farm near Camp Run, in this county, ran across a huge snake, at least thirty feet long. It is about a foot in diameter, of a shiny black color and has two yellow rings about its neck. The same snake has been seen in the swamps of Camp Run for years by many responsible people, but no one, however, had the courage to attack the monster. It is likely that a party will be organized to capture or kill it within a short time.

MALINDA CRUMP is on trial in the Greenup Circuit Court for the willful murder of her husband, Charles Crump. Eighty men were used in selecting a panel of twelve. Turner Crump, William Crump, Charles Callahan, John Nicholas, Ed. Poynter, all reputable men, deposed as to the dying declaration of the murdered man, and Dr. A. G. Sellards and Howard C. Sellards gave expert testimony regarding the wounds. The evidence shows that the man was undoubtedly shot from behind, which would indicate the killing was not done in self defense, as claimed by the accused. The verdict is awaited with bated breath. The penalty may be death, but a verdict of hanging is not anticipated.

The Maysville Carriage Company

having a large and elegant line of Carriages on hand, will offer for thirty days to come some extraordinary bargains.

REMEMBER at the Opera-house to-night will be presented "The Mouse Trap."

Don't fail to see it, and by all means have your coupons with you for the drawing of the furniture. Matinee this afternoon.

THE Chesapeake and Ohio is about to have some trouble with its telegraph operators. The Order of Railway Telegraphers is very strong on that system, and a short time since the Grievance Committee of that Order prepared a schedule of wages for consideration by General Manager George W. Stevens. This schedule provided for an increase in salaries ranging from $5 to $10 per month. The application has been forwarded by the operators by Grand Chief Ramsey of the O. R. T. for his approval, when it will then be sent to the C. and O.'s General Manager.

THE MAYSVILLE ASSEMBLY.

The Annual Fair Hop Last Night a Most Pleasant Affair.

There have been several minor events in society during the fair week and the whole culminated last night in a scene of unusual brilliancy. The occasion was the Annual Fair Hop given by the Maysville Assembly. Their guests were constituted of the wealth, culture and refinement of this and the surrounding counties.

The ample Neptune Hall was not of sufficient dimensions to comfortably contain all who gathered in the early part of the evening. The floor was completely filled with the dancers and chaperones and spectators lined the walls on all sides. Saxton's famous orchestra of Lexington furnished the music which added much to the pleasure.

It was not until 5 o'clock this morning that the last waltz was danced. In all respects it was one of the most delightful affairs of the kind that has ever been given in Maysville.

Among the many present were noticed: Miss Pearce, Lexington; Miss Mannen, Covington; Miss Carlett, Owensville; Miss Goodpastor, Owensville; Miss McDonald, Flemingsburg; Miss Anderson, Cincinnati; Miss Johnson, Mt. Sterling; Miss Hord, Wedonia; Miss Reynolds, Augusta; Miss Fennell, Flemingsburg; Miss Scudder, Carlisle; Miss Hardin, Owenton; Miss Slaughter, Danville; Miss Orr, Covington; Miss Bland, Bluefields; Miss Harbeson, Augusta; Miss Manker, Peoria, Ill.; Miss Kirk, Washington; Miss Bradford, Covington; Miss Coons, Augusta; Miss Alexander, Lewisburg; Miss McDonald, Cincinnati; Miss Thompson, Sharpburg; Miss Hord, St. Joseph, Mo.; Miss Perrine, Tuckahoe; Miss Smoot, Fern Leaf; Miss Jennie Wood, Miss Barbour, Miss Robinson, Miss Marshall, Miss Wheeler, Miss Hocker, Miss Higginbotham, Miss Shackelford, Miss Berry, Miss Hall, Miss Nannie Wood, Mrs. Clarence Wood, Miss Kirk and Miss Brame, Maysville.

Among the chaperones and spectators were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Owens, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watson, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Chenoweth, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Means, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Baldwin, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ben Poyntz, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Respass, Misses Bessie and Hattie Johnson, Miss Lucy Watson, Miss Sophia Albert and many others.

MARRIED TO DEATH.

'Squire Beasley the Marryist Dies at Aberdeen This Morning.

Massie Beasley is dead. He had a world-wide reputation as the Marryist.

Within the last quarter of a century he had tied the knot for more than six thousand runaway couples, mostly from Kentucky.

And he rather enjoyed the distinction of having married more people than any living man—or any dead one either.

He died at half past 7 o'clock this morning, after a protracted illness, but it was only within the past two weeks that he was too feeble to transact business.

Mr. Beasley was in his 81st year, and has but one survivor, Mrs. Thomas M. Martin.

The funeral will take place to-morrow under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, at an hour to be announced hereafter.

REMEMBER the matinee this afternoon.

REMEMBER at the Opera-house to-night will be presented "The Mouse Trap."

Don't fail to see it, and by all means have your coupons with you for the drawing of the furniture. Matinee this afternoon.

DR. TANNER, the well known Irish member, returned to Parliament somewhat deaf because of a sod thrown at him during his election fight in county Galway, but with his mouth in first-class working order.

DR. EZEKIEL FORMAN of New Orleans will preach at the Central Presbyterian Church at 11 o'clock to-morrow. At 8 o'clock preaching by the Pastor, subject: Satan at Church and Why he goes. In the afternoon at 4 o'clock Rev. B. W. Mebane will preach at the M. E. Church, Aberdeen, O. Cordial invitation to these services.

THE Gibney, Gordon & Gibney Comedy Company played "The Old Homestead" to standing room only last night at the Opera-house, and the large and commodious hall rang with the applause of the appreciative audience on every climax. It was a grand play, acted out by actions interspersed with specialties of a high order, and showed rural life as it is, not overdone in any particular but the real comedy natural in such a play. This afternoon they will present the "Octoroon," and to-night "The Mouse Trap," which closes their engagement in this city.

THE RIOTERS.

Monroe Gets a Hearing and Goes to Jail Without Bail.

The Notorious Bud Lindsay is Released on a $5,000 Bond.

Other Rioters Have the Same Privilege—Proof Shows That There Was An Oath-Sound Organization—More Rioters Arrested at Oliver Springs, Tenn.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 27.—The examinations of the prisoners at Coal Creek have come to a sudden termination. Since Thursday that of D. B. Monroe has been in progress before Justice Kinkaid, of Clinton. Many witnesses were examined, and much damaging evidence adduced.

The proof shows that there was an oath-bound organization, and that these men were numbered and did not go by names, yet there is scarcely a man about Coal Creek or Oliver Springs who does not know who was in the parish mobs. They know positively each from their respective neighborhood, but on the witness stand they had most defective memories. But sufficient evidence was found against Monroe, a leader, to send him to the gal-lows.

When the evidence was in M. B. Lindsay, U. S. attorney for the Eastern district of Tennessee, made a short talk, claiming that there was no charge proven which was not bailable. The prosecutor quoted the law, showing that any man with a gun or other deadly weapon, who was actively taking part in a mob which caused death was guilty of murder in the first degree. Justice Kinkaid decided the case not bailable, and remanded Monroe to jail to await trial.

There are a large number of other prisoners. They became panic-stricken at once, and waived examination under the advice of the attorney. Those who can give bond will do so, where the cases are deemed bailable, and as Monroe is held to be the leader, it is now thought all will be allowed bail if they can give it. If not, they will be sent to jail.

Bud Lindsay was allowed bail in $5,000, which his brother furnished. He got on the train and started to Knoxville at 4 p. m., but a squad of boys from Fort Anderson did not like his actions and went into the train and re-arrested him. They took him to the guard-house and locked him up. Gen. Carnes immediately issued a peremptory order providing a guard to protect him and to see that the enraged militiamen who have been in the fort so long did him no injury. Monroe was brought here at 5:30 p. m. and lodged in jail. He refused to be interviewed.

OLIVER SPRINGS, Tenn., Aug. 27.—A squad of soldiers from Coal Creek, under command of Lieut. Patterson, suddenly appeared at Oliver Springs Friday and began making arrests. They returned in the afternoon with ninety prisoners to Coal Creek, having succeeded in arresting every man they wanted. In and around Oliver Springs the insurrection is a thing of the past, and the miners admit that they are whipped. Peace prevails, and the majority of the miners seem disposed to claim that they were driven into open lawlessness by the gang which came from Coal Creek and over-awed them.

Good Feeling Between France and Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 27.—An incident has occurred which affords another illustration of the feeling that exists between France and Russia. The French delegates to the International Railway Congress, which is to be held here, are making a visit to Warsaw. Friday they were driven in a carriage to various points of interest about the city, and among other places they visited was the military camp at Molokoff. As they passed through the camp the soldiers shouted: "Vive la Russia," and the soldiers responded with enthusiastic cheers for France.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—For Ohio—Fair, preceded by showers in north-eastern portion to-night; warmer in eastern portion; winds becoming variable.

For Indiana and Illinois—Fair, winds shifting to south.

For Tennessee and Kentucky—Fair, except showers in extreme western portion; north winds, becoming variable.

For West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania—Fair, preceded by showers to-night in Western Pennsylvania; warmer; south winds.
